

Supply Relationships Coordinator

Certified Australian Angus Beef (CAAB) is the leading brand of beef in Australia. With recent business growth and development CAAB seeks a Supply Relationships Coordinator to be based in South East Queensland.

The Supply Relationships Coordinator is a new position and offers the right individual to be part of a small and exciting team committed to servicing Angus producers and creating opportunity for the increased demand on quality Angus Beef.

CAAB is heavily focused on consumer satisfaction and through this role the successful applicant would be responsible for continued relationship development with all CAAB stakeholders from Producer through to Consumer.

The successful applicant would be required to work with stakeholders delivering technical updates, marketing support and performing auditing functions for the validation of breed for the various breed programs that CAAB administers. In addition the successful applicant would also support the Supply Relationships Manager and where required the Chief Executive Officer.

You must be a self starter, able to work autonomously or as part of a team; have problem solving skills and excellent attention to detail. It is essential that you have very good communication skills and are computer literate.

An appropriate salary package (inc. company vehicle) is available and will be negotiated with the successful applicant to commensurate with experience.

If you have the aforementioned attributes and skills you are encouraged to apply via email to kbrabin@caab.com.au providing evidence of experience, demonstrated competence, current references and contact details. Further enquiries can be directed to Kate Brabin on 0418 296 805, all applications will be confirmed as received via telephone.

Applications close February 26th 2010 and will be followed by individual interviews shortly after.
