

POSITION DESCRIPTION

COMPUTER PROGRAMMER

Role:	Software development and support for Angus Australia's data acquisition, storage, management and reporting requirements.
Location:	Armidale, NSW
Salary Package:	Salary package negotiable on experience, plus superannuation at current government prescribed level.
Term:	Permanent Full Time / Permanent Part Time
Reports to:	Information Systems Manager

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Work with Information Systems team and other staff to assist in the design, development and maintenance of a customised web based computer system.
2. Work with other software providers and IT partners to ensure effective interface with electronic data sources and exchange of data and reports as required.
3. Conduct other tasks related to development of the customised computer system
4. Assist with other duties as required.

Essential selection criteria:

1. Knowledge of PHP/object oriented programming (OOP).
2. 2+ years' experience with PHP development.
3. HTML + CSS + JavaScript.
4. Sound SQL knowledge.
5. Use of web frameworks and libraries.
6. Be able to work in a small team.

Desirable selection criteria:

1. Experience with development of agricultural software applications.
2. Experience in Zend/Laminas.
3. Experience with PostgreSQL database development.
4. Experience developing mobile applications.

Please forward your application addressing the selection criteria to Recruitment@angusaustralia.com.au.

Please note applications that DO NOT address the selection criteria will not be considered.
Applications close 5pm Friday July 8, 2022 or when a suitable applicant is found.

For further information contact:

Christopher de Crespigny (Information Systems Manager)
02 6773 4619 or email Christopher@angusaustralia.com.au or

Kathryn Duddy (Human Resources Manager)
0447 332 202 or email kathryn.duddy@angusaustralia.com.au