

Livestock grazing efficiency – Research and Technical updates

Join us for the latest in livestock grazing efficiency research technologies.

Some topics include:

- Pasture grazing efficiency—Paul Greenwood / Flavio Alvarenga
- The latest in cattle eartag and collar technology—Lewis Frost and Greg Bishop-Hurley
- Dual purpose crops for lamb production—Peter Hunt
- Legume persistence on the Northern Tablelands: what we have learnt—Carol Harris

When: Wednesday 16th March 2022, 8.30am—Noon

Where: Big Ridge Road, CSIRO Chiswick Research Station

Cost: FREE. Morning tea and lunch included.

Register: This a COVID safe event and spaces are limited. Register by Sunday 13th March:

Register here

Contact Todd Andrews on 0429 987 405 or todd.andrews@dpi.nsw.gov.au

This research is part of the Livestock Productivity Partnership which aims to boost the productivity of grazing systems and developing new research and development capacity via collaborations between: