ABOUT THE MAGAZINE

The Bulletin

The Bulletin is the flagship publication of Angus Australia, produced quarterly and distributed through controlled and highly targeted circulation to members and key industry stakeholders across Australia and New Zealand.

The magazine is taking on a new format in 2026 and will showcase the people, enterprises, regions and systems that define the Angus breed, combining long-form storytelling with commercial insight and strategic perspective.

THE AUDIENCE

The Bulletin reaches an influential, decision-making readership with a direct stake in the beef industry.

Audience includes seedstock and commercial producers, stud principals and managers, agribusiness professionals, service providers and rural decision-makers.
